Fine Program For Exhibition and Sports

The Agricultural Fair and Sports Day officials are busy preparing for the big event on Wednesday, July 30th, when it is expected that Didsbury will celebrate one of the best day's programs that has been held for some years.

Sports of all kinds have been arranged by the Committees who have tried their best to arrange a program that all can take part in, our friends throughout the district as well as the townspeople. The horse race and slow race prizes have been arranged to give the young farmers who have horses a chance to show their mettle and provide a good time for the spectators.

One big event on the program in a full afternoon is the baseball game that has been arranged between the winners of the Central and Rosebud Leagues, Red Deer and Olds, which will take place on the Agricultural grounds. The winners of this game will play off with Didsbury in the evening on the regular baseball diamond.

The Athletic events for the younger element have not been neglected and include a 220 yard race, 100 yard race, half mile race and an open run for men; 100 yard dash, running high jump, broad jump and pole vaulting for boys.

A dance will be held in the evening by the Didsbury Baseball Club, for which good music will be supplied and this will end the day's proceedings.

All information in regard to sports can be seen on the large posters being circulated or by calling on the following gentlemen: J. A. McGhee, Geo. Julien, J. R. Miller or E. E. Freeman.

The Agricultural Society officers are also working hard to arrange for the Exhibition and prospects are that all classes of exhibits will be well filled.

In connection with the Exhibition all who intend making exhibits should not forget that entries must be made on or before 8 p. m. on Saturday, July 26th. The rules and regulations provided by the Department of Agriculture compel the Society to strictly adhere to this ruling and exhibitors should consequently govern themselves accordingly.

In connection with the Exhibition all who intend making exhibits accordingly. All information in regard to the Exhibition can be secured by applying to Mr. J. V. Berscht, the Manager, or to Geo. Wigglesworth, the Secretary.

The War on Crows and Magpies

The competition inaugurated by the Department of Agriculture in the shooting of crows and magpies in order that these pests may be reduced, has created keen interest. There are now 415 schools competing in the contests as well as many individuals, gun clubs, etc. The competition closes September 1, but individuals, clubs, etc. will be credited with points in their particular competitions, if the records are received before September 10th. The reports are that there already has been a notable reduction in the number of crows in the province. Many municipalities have included the crows in the bounty they offer for destruction of pests.

Mr. H. I. Peterson who has been principal of the Public School for the last two years, applied for and has received the appointment as Principal of the High School.

Re-opening of Evangelical Church

The work of re-decorating and improving the interior of the Evangelical church at a cost of over $500 has now been completed and it now presents a fine comfortable appearance in the interior.

The church will be reopened for service on Sunday next, July 20th, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. W. B. Dengis, the pastor, who has been attending the convention held at Warner, Alta., will return in time to conduct all services.

United States and the League of Nations

A proposal for a national referendum on the question of the United States entering the League of Nations has come from the platform committee of the Democratic National Convention, and should the Democrats carry the elections of members to the Senate and House of Representatives, the proposal for such a referendum will undoubtedly be vigorously urged.

The League of Nations is only four years old, but there is already included in its membership fifty-five nations representing more than three-quarters of the area and population of the world. Only eight countries are still outside the League, namely, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Afghanistan, Mexico, Russia, Turkey, Germany and the United States. With the signing of the Treaty of Lausanne, Turkey announced her intention of applying for membership, and Germany will no doubt be admitted as soon as the present abnormal economic and political situation is settled. Russia is antagonistic and at present ineligible due to her peculiar political constitution.

Playing the game of party politics in the United States kept that country out of the League, notwithstanding the great part taken by the late ex-President Wilson and his colleagues in drafting the League Covenant. There has, however, always been a strong sentiment in the United States in support of the League of Nations and favorable to membership and active participation in its work by the United States. That sentiment has been kept alive and developed by the League of Nations Society in the United States, and by powerful public men, newspapers and organizations.

The large measure of success achieved by the League during the past four years has also had its effect in convincing thousands of people who, in the United States, as elsewhere, were somewhat skeptical that an international organization could be created, maintained and be made effective based on a mutual understanding of international co-operation and goodwill and to achieve international peace and security. To many the idea seemed visionary, too Utopian, and altogether impracticable.

However, in a space of time actually shorter than the Great War, the League of Nations has been successful in settling three disputes which otherwise would almost certainly have resulted in wars; caused the cessation of hostilities between Poland and Lithuania; stopped a war actually in progress between Yugoslavia and Albania, and, through the instrumentality of the Permanent Court of International Justice established by the League, settled a serious dispute between Great Britain and France.

The League saved Austria from bankruptcy and has established that country firmly on the way to prosperity, thus preventing further trouble in Europe which inevitably would have followed the break-up of that country. It is now engaged in similar work for Hungary.

Through its International Labor Bureau, which consists of representatives of Governments, employers and employed, the League is improving industrial conditions by raising the standards of labor uniformly throughout the world, thus removing the old excuse that labor conditions cannot be improved in one country because of the lower standard prevailing in other countries in competition with it.

Action taken by the League stopped the extension and ravages of the plague of typhus which threatened to overrun all Europe. The League secured the liberation of half a million prisoners of war held in Russia long after hostilities had ceased. It is waging an organized world-wide campaign against the opium and drug traffic, as well as for the suppression of the traffic in women and children. It is engaged in scientific research and campaigns for the prevention of disease, and wherever a danger spot of plague arises there the League concentrates its good health forces.

The League of Nations is the greatest existing agency doing practical work for the reconstruction of the shattered nations of Europe, upon the rehabilitation of which depends the security and prosperity of the world. It is the one existing human agency carrying in itself the hope of all peoples for the maintenance of peace, and the ultimate disarmament of the nations. It is carrying on this work at a yearly cost not more than the upkeep of one first-class modern battleship.

The Great War cost Canada over one and one-quarter billions of dollars, not to mention the still more tragic loss in human life, in bodies crippled and shattered, in untold agonies of human suffering. The after-cost of the war to Canada this year will be $56,729,400, or over one million dollars a week. On the other hand, Canada's contribution to the upkeep of the League of Nations, the only existing human agency capable of preventing war, will be only $198,688, or less than four thousand dollars a week. That is our national insurance premium against war.

These things are having their effect on the people of the United States, and if the League issue could only be separated from party politics in our sister Republic, there is little doubt what the verdict of the people there would be. Hence the plan of a national referendum is to be welcomed. In the meantime, as the only North American member of the League, it is Canada's duty and privilege to interpret the League to our neighbors to the south, and in their intercourse with United States citizens, whether personal or in their business relationships, Canadians should strive to promote sentiment favorable to the League of Nations, and show very clearly that they are looking forward hopefully to the day when the United States will occupy its rightful place in the brotherhood of nations, and in that long-dreamed-of Parliament of Man represented by the Council and Assembly of the League of Nations.

Weekly Mail To Alaska

Railroad Makes This Possible For First Time Since 1898

Residents of the Yukon River are receiving a weekly mail service for the first time since 1898, during the great gold rush of the Yukon. The Alaska Railroad has made this possible.

A train leaves Seward, on the Gulf of Alaska of the Pacific Ocean, and winds its way to Nenana, 400 miles north of the interior. At Nenana the mail is transferred to government steamers which run on a weekly schedule down the Tanana River to Fort Gibbon on the Yukon River. From there the boats ply the Yukon to Holy Cross, 400 miles from the river's mouth.

From Holy Cross the Northern Commercial Company operates a fleet of launches to Nome and St. Michael, on the Bering Sea coast, and Innoko and Iditarod on the Innoko and Iditarod rivers in the interior.

WHEN YOUR THROAT IS SORE

It may be only a slight cold now—just a tickling in the throat.

But little colds soon grow large and dangerous. Often they become chronic, develop catarrh and end in consumption.

Catarrhoxone is the remedy. It draws inflammation and soreness out of the throat. Relieves the cough, cuts out the phlegm, makes breathing easy, kills any germs lodged in the mucous lining of the throat or lungs.

By using CATARRHOZONE INHALER now and again you keep the passages free from germs, and thereby prevent coughs and colds. Get the Dollar outfit, it lasts two months; small size 50c; sold by druggists. Refuse a substitute for Catarrhoxone. By mail from The Catarrhoxone Co., Montreal.

Heart Disease Not So Common As Is Thought

Main Cause Is Rheumatic Fever, Says Dr. Parkinson, Great London Authority

There is a world of good cheer and encouragement to those who imagine they have, or have been told they have, heart disease, in the emphatic declaration of Dr. John Parkinson, of London, England, in his address to the general gathering of the Canadian Medical Association in annual convention in Ottawa. Dr. Parkinson speaks with the authority of experience for he is physician in charge of the cardiographic department of the London hospital, physician to out patients of the National Heart Hospital, and visiting cardiographist to the ministry of pensions.

Dr. Parkinson stated that a great range of troubles are placed under the heading of heart disease wrongfully. There are many alleged causes of heart disease, such as nervous strain, and so on, which do not really cause permanent damage to the heart. "The athletic heart," like the strained heart, is a myth, and the tobacco smoker may go blazing ahead with the full knowledge that tobacco has nothing to do with heart disease.

Dr. Parkinson states emphatically that the evidence of tobacco causing permanent disease of the heart is very small indeed. It is easy to show that the early reported cases were due to something else. Smoking has a slight effect in increasing the heart rate and raising the blood pressure, but this occurs during actual smoking and for sometime afterwards. There is no good evidence that it causes permanent injury to the heart.

The main cause of heart disease, according to this eminent British authority, is rheumatic fever; and such complaints as palpitation, dizziness and fainting weakness need not necessarily give an impression that heart disease is present.

Progress Is Made in Fighting This Dread Disease

The vice-chancellor also announced that research work in connection with foot and mouth disease had advanced to a point where it was possible to predict that a remedy for the disease would soon be found.

Enjoyed Visit To B.C.

Special Service Squadron Entertained 70,000 Visitors During Stay in Vancouver Harbor

The three cruisers of the special service squadron entertained 70,000 visitors during their 10-day stay in Vancouver harbor. On the last day, close to 3,300 children alone were taken over the ships. Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick Field said: "We have all immensely enjoyed our visit to British Columbia. Both officers and men have been absolutely overcome with the kindness and hospitality of the people, and have been tremendously impressed with the resources and prospects of the country." Two hundred of the visiting sailors were entertained July 5 in New Westminster and Cloverdale, the day's programme including the inspection of logging camps.

British Boys For Canada

Fifty boys sailed recently on the steamship Regina for Canada, where they will find positions on farms. Their departure forms part of the scheme to train 1,000 boys at the Hadleigh farm colony of the Salvation Army in London. The boys were urged by General Bramwell Booth to reproduce in the land of their adoption all that was best in the thoughts and traditions of the motherland.

A Severe Attack Of Heart Trouble Was Relieved By MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills

Mr. S. E. Barnes, Athens, Ont., writes:—"Four years ago I had a very severe attack of heart trouble. I consulted my doctor; he treated me for some time, but I only seemed to be getting worse. I finally went to our druggist and purchased three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and derived immediate relief from their use, and I can truthfully say they are a wonderful medicine. I always keep a box on hand, and if I feel out of sorts I take a few pills and feel all right again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KNOTTY POINTS TO BE SETTLED AT CONFERENCE

Paris.—The aims and objects of the inter-allied conference and the views of France and Great Britain as to how the controversial points at issue may be settled are set forth in a text which Premier MacDonald and M. Herriot agreed should be substituted for the British text, which caused a storm of protests in opposition circles in France.

The new text sets for a series of provisions:

1.—Both countries confirm their acceptance of the Dawes report.

2.—They agree that the arrangements to be made under the Dawes plan must not infringe upon the authority of the Reparation Commission.

3.—In case the Reparation Commission declares Germany in voluntary default in the execution of the Dawes plan the interested governments undertake to confer immediately as to the measures for putting into effect the penalties, concerning which they shall have come to an agreement previously for their protection and for the protection of the subscribers to the loan to Germany.

4.—The plan whereby the economic and fiscal unity of Germany shall be re-established when the Reparation Commission shall have reported the Dawes plan in effect, will be drawn up by the inter-allied conference.

5.—Common accord of the governments alone can modify the experts' plan in case experience proves that changes are necessary.

6.—The allies shall set up an organization to study and report on the utilization of payments made by Germany toward reparation.

The text points out that while the Reparation Commission cannot be dispossessed of its prerogative to decide when Germany is in default, guarantees must be provided for the subscribers to the German loan of $200,000,000 marks.

Increase Compensation For Registered Letters

Amount of $100 May Be Paid For Loss

Ottawa.—The bill to amend the Post Office Act, increasing the compensation that may be paid for loss on registered letters to $100 was given third reading in the House of Commons. Under the present law the limit of compensation is $25 for registered articles, but insurance may be obtained up to $100. Hon. Charles Stewart, acting postmaster-general, stated that the rates for registration for increased values under consideration were 20 cents for $50; 30 cents for $75; and 40 cents for $100.

Government System Of Bank Inspection In Canada

Ottawa.—A bill to provide a system of government inspection of Canadian banks passed committee stage in the House of Commons and merely awaits final reading in the House before going to the Senate for approval. The measure comes as a sequel to the failure of the Home Bank and subsequent investigations of the Canadian banking system by a Parliamentary committee, during which expert evidence from the United States was called. Under the bill, an inspector-general of banks will be appointed, the inspector reporting to the minister of finance.

Referred To Supreme Court

Doubt Has Arisen In Reference To Eight-Hour Day Legislation

Ottawa.—Reference of the eight-hour day convention to the Supreme Court of Canada for opinion on jurisdiction will be recommended to the House of Commons by the committee on industrial and internal relations. The convention was adopted at the Washington conference of the International Labor Organization of the League of Nations.

Canada was a party to the convention, but doubt has arisen whether the implementing of the legislation comes under federal or provincial jurisdiction. It is this doubt which, if the committee's recommendation is adopted, will be referred to the Supreme Court for opinion.

An amendment to a report as originally presented, recommending that the government should bring down legislation to provide for the eight-hour day on all government contracts entered into in future, was also adopted.

Voluntary Salary Cut Would Be Temporary

Offer of C. N. Officials Would Apply Only During Curtailment Period

Montreal.—If the board of management of the Canadian National Railways accept the offer of the officers of the railway to have their salaries reduced one day's pay a month during the period of curtailed receipts, it is pointed out that President Sir Henry Thornton will contribute more than $1,600 in a year from his $50,000 salary.

If accepted, it is thought here that the officers' voluntary cut would last only as long as the reduction in hours for the men in the shops of the system continued. The reduction would apply, if accepted, to every officer above the rank of chief clerk.

Similar expression has also been given by Rear-Admiral Sir Hubert Brand, in command of the light cruiser squadron, which remained at Esquimalt through the whole period of the fleet's visit.

Lloyd George Heard From

Former Premier of Great Britain Now Stirring Political Waters

London.—Is Lloyd George about to start out in a fresh breeze to stir political waters of the British Empire?

Of late the former premier has frequently been likened to the proverbial ship without a sail. Has he discovered and bent on a main sail and headed into political winds from which England is never free?

These are questions asked following the dinner when Lord Beaverbrook entertained the visiting Canadian weekly newspapermen, and at which Mr. Lloyd George was the piece de resistance among the orators.

Lloyd George was hailed by the host of the evening as the "greatest Empire builder of our time." It is considered significant that the Daily Express, which is a Beaverbrook publication, today gives the Lloyd George speech verbatim, despite the many generalities of the address and the limited space in the paper.

Grain Loading Record Is Made At Montreal

Montreal.—Beating all previous records for rapid loading of grain in the port of Montreal and creating what is believed to be a world's record, the British steamer Immerton, 3,241 tons, took on board 274,590 bushels of Canadian wheat in six and a quarter hours at the harbor commissioners' elevator B, new conveyor section. The previous record was made in August, 1922, when the British steamer Clearpool took on board 240,000 bushels of wheat in 9½ hours.

At the same time he voiced regret over the original statement given out by W. M. As to the movement to gain control of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company, Mr. Brouillette remained non-committal.

Governor-General Will Make Tour Of West

Baron and Lady Byng to Spend Some Time in British Columbia

Ottawa.—Governor-General Byng, accompanied by Lady Byng, will leave the capital over the Canadian Pacific Railway, on Sunday, July 20, on his trip to Western Canada, most of which will be spent in British Columbia, according to the itinerary announced here.

Arriving at Winnipeg at 6.15 p.m. July 22, he will leave the next morning, stopping a few hours at Regina and Calgary, and arriving at Vancouver at 3 p.m. July 26. The next day will be spent at Victoria, and on July 28, he is scheduled to leave for Penicton, at 10 p.m., arriving there the next morning.

Her Excellency, in the meantime, will pay a visit to Jasper Park. The Governor-General leaves Ottawa again on August 24, and will rejoin Lady Byng at North Bay.

They will then visit Northern Ontario points together, returning to Ottawa, September 6.

Replies To Charges Against Pension Board

Secretary Denies Veterans' Charges Of Not Receiving Square Deal

Ottawa.—J. A. Paton, secretary of the board of pension commissioners, replied to charges of incompetence made against the board of veterans' organizations, before the House of Commons committee on soldiers' pensions. Answering the charge that the veterans were not receiving a square deal, Mr. Paton said that thousands of men had been receiving pensions for years, without complaint or dissatisfaction. The board had awarded increases in pensions wherever possible, according to the statutes as amended in 1923.

The committee then proceeded in camera to discuss the motion of L. W. Humphrey, Progressive, West Kootenay, to remove from office the members of the board of pensions commissioners.

Ottawa.—Distribution of the canteen fund of the Canadian Expeditionary Force will be provided for in government legislation to be brought down this session.

NO LEGISLATION THIS YEAR ON RURAL CREDITS

Ottawa.—Another fruitless attempt to obtain legislation this year with regard to rural credits was made G. G. Coote, Progressive member for Macleod, before the House Banking and Commerce Committee, when he moved that legislation on the subject should be brought down this session. In view of previous action taken, when the committee decided to report to the House for legislation next session, Chairman Vien asked if Mr. Coote would drop his motion.

"No," replied Mr. Coote. "You can easily kill it, but I will not drop it. The people are tired of investigation and want action."

The chairman said Dr. H. M. Tory, president of Alberta University, who investigated rural credits for the government, had reported that a further inquiry was necessary.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative, Vancouver Centre, who supported the proposal for emergency action this year, held that before adopting Mr. Coote's present motion it would be necessary to rescind the action taken previously.

Mr. Coote's motion was defeated. Only four voted for it.

Mr. Coote later moved to limit the issues of bank notes to 50 per cent. of the unimpaired, paid-up capital instead of 100 per cent. as at present. He stated frankly that he proposed that as a step toward substituting government notes for bank notes. After a brief discussion Mr. Coote withdrew this motion and discussion shifted to a second proposal by the same member that the control of bank notes issues should be transferred to the finance department from the Canadian Bankers' Association as now. This was voted down, 29 to 10.

Will Continue Allied Military Control

Request of Germany Denied by Council of Ambassadors

Paris.—Germany's request that inter-allied military control of her armaments cease on September 30, was denied by the Allied Council of Ambassadors in a note handed to the German ambassador. Satisfaction was expressed, however, that the Germans had agreed to the main point, demanded by the council, the resumption of the Control Commission's activities.

The ambassador's note informed Germany that the condition of control would depend entirely upon the satisfactory results of the commission's work and on German compliance with the five requirements made of her previously, regarding disarmament. The method of disarmament inspection would be determined by the inter-allied control commission, the note set forth, and any suggestion the Germans wished to offer would be considered.

Democratic Nominee

John W. Davis, of West Virginia, Is Selected By Democrats

New York.—The Democratic national convention brought its tempestuous session to a close by placing before the country a ticket headed by John W. Davis, of West Virginia, with Governor Charles W. Bryan, of Nebraska, in second place.

The nomination of the Nebraskan, who is a brother of William Jennings Bryan, took only one ballot. The word that the leaders wanted him nominated was passed quickly about the convention hall and the result was not long in doubt.

John W. Davis, of West Virginia, nominated for the Presidency by the Democratic national convention in the breaking up of its historic deadlock, assumed the active leadership of the party.

Not Building Storage In B.C.

Regina, Sask.—J. A. Gregory, president of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Creamery, upon returning to this city, denied a report which stated that his organization intended constructing a huge cold storage plant at Vancouver for the storage of Saskatchewan butter. He stated that he found prospects of a good market for Saskatchewan butter in B.C. and also in the Orient.

SWINGLE—WIGGINS

The Westerdale church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, July 9th, when Lydia Melletta, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wiggins of Westerdale, was united in marriage to Mr. Orin Swingle, also of Westerdale. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a navy suit with picture hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of Bridal roses and maidens-hair fern. She was attended by her sister Mariam, who wore a gown of sand satin with contrasting hat and carried a sheaf of pink carnations. The Misses Hyndman and Carlson, in white organdie and carrying roses, made dainty little flower girls, while Master Bobbie Schrader bore the ring in the heart of a Calla Lilly. The groom was attended by Mr. George Jackson of Westerdale. Rev. Dr. Buchanan of Edmonton assisted the bride's father with the ceremony, while Miss Legault of Didsbury played the wedding march. Mr. Ferdinand Gilbertson and Mr. Boyd Miller of Olds acted as ushers. After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served to the guests. The happy couple left the same evening on an extended motor trip.

BROWN—OLIVER

A quiet wedding, owing to recent bereavements in both families, was solemnized at the manse, Ogden, by the Rev. A. C. Bryan, between William Fairfax Brown and Mrs. Minnie Oliver, both of Didsbury, on the 9th day of July, 1924. The bride was prettily attired in Delph blue crepe-de-chene and wore a gold wrist watch, the gift of the groom. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith of Ogden, cousins of the groom. They will reside at Didsbury after a short honeymoon at Banff.

ALBERTA COAL FOR ONTARIO

It is expected that the plan to market 100,000 tons of Alberta coal in Ontario the coming season will mature as a result of the vote of $200,000 by the Federal Government for assistance to the railways in handling the coal. The plan is that the Federal Government will pay charges above the actual cost of handling the coal in train load lots during the slack season of the traffic. Many centres in Ontario have already placed preliminary orders for Alberta coal.

BURNSIDE

Mr. and Mrs. John Eckel of Alsask, Alberta are spending a week with the latter's brother, Noah Eckel, and other friends in the district.

The Burnside U. F. A. picnic on June 30th was a great success. There was a large crowd, good eats, good program and sports of every kind. The ladies baseball was a great drawing card, the Wildcats and Tigers putting up a snappy ball game and the umpire had his job cut out for him between the ladies and the sympathisers on the side lines. The dance in the evening was well-attended and the Bellamy orchestra put up their usual quota of good music.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark are both in Calgary in an ailing state. Mrs. Clark with throat trouble and Mr. Clark with sunstroke. We hope to see them both back in good health in the near future.

"Not much to offer as a guest room, but our one best bet," he apologized. "I'll confess frankly that there isn't a single bunk-sheet in the detachment. But I think I can guarantee a sound sleep for both of you. I'll promise there'll be no breakfast alarm in the morning, but the makings of a meal will be beside the kitchen stove when you're ready."

Protest unexpected came from mild-mannered Mrs. Morrow. "But we're routing you out of house and home, sergeant," she exclaimed. With a nod of her blond head, she indicated an extra uniform which dangled from a hook against the wall, tell-tale staff stripes upon its crimson sleeve.

"A dreadful thing to do," added Moira. "And on your first night home after your long patrol!" That portion of Seymour's face that was not bearded took color from the tunic that had betrayed him. "And I thought I'd removed all trace of the former occupant. Must be getting color blind." He carried the jacket into the living room. "Don't worry about your reverend, Mrs. Morrow; he'll bunk as snug as a bug out here with La Marr and me," he called back.

There was a chorus of good-nights; then the men settled to their pipes before the fireplace. After a reasonable wait in silence, Seymour lowered his voice and communicated to Luke Morrow the news of the tragedy. Without reservation, the missionary approved their course of keeping it from Moira until after the necessary legal formalities had been carried out. Then, he said, he would take charge with a religious reverence that might lighten the blow.

"She's a wonderful woman, Moira O'Malley," he said with deep feeling. "She endeared herself to everyone who met her over at Wolf Lake. Utterly wrapped up in her brother, this will be a terrible blow. I wonder if—"

He hesitated. "Would it be advisable, do you think, to tell her of the death but not the fearful form?" Glances exchanged by the three laymen showed that they appreciated the missionary's struggle—kindly thought against strict truthfulness. Long had he taught the "truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." But just now he wavered.

"By gar! It absolutely would!" Karmack vociferated. "Seymour's quick wit worked out a solution. 'An accident of the Arctic prairies. I'll trust having that one marked up against me in the Doomsday Book.'"

"Blessed are the kindly of heart," murmured the "sky-pilot." "So be it!"

Of course, they all realized that Moira would learn in time the nature of the "accident," but that need not be until Time had its chance to save the wound. The arrest of Avic need not bring about disclosure; once the whites in Armistice were pledged to keep it from her. She might know him only as another unfortunate, misguided Eskimo slayer, a handcut brother to Olespe of the Lady Franklin band, then in the guard room.

"But Mrs. Morrow?" The thought came suddenly to Seymour that the woman missionary spoke some Eskimo. "She'll hear of it from the natives."

Luke Morrow smiled; they did not know of the iron which was in the make-up of his little blond wife as he did.

"She is a good woman, so merciful. I will pray this out with her in the morning."

For a time, gloomy silence held the group around the fireplace. Suddenly Karmack leaned over and grasped Morrow almost roughly by the shoulder.

"Parson, do you know why that girl left her father and the comparative comforts of a British Columbia gold camp to share a trader's shack in bleak Armistice with her brother?"

The trader's demand scarcely could have been more vehement had he personally resented Moira's coming. "I know that he did not expect her. What's more, he never even spoke of having a sister."

The missionary's calm was perfect. "She had no way of letting him know that she was coming to spend the winter with him, once the wireless she sent to Edmonton failed to reach Wolf Lake," he replied. "She came through herself by train in the first storm of winter. We had great difficulty in keeping her with us until we ourselves were ready to make the trip across country. She'd have come through with an Indian dog driver if we had not protested so stoutly."

"All that to see a brother, eh?" snorted Karmack. "Are you certain she is his sister?"

Seymour sprang to his feet, an angry glitter in his gray eyes. "Enough of that, Karmack! Express another such doubt and out you go—for good."

For a moment, a snarling expression strove to master the trader's face. The missionary poured oil.

"I'm sure Mr. Karmack meant nothing wrong. He's just a bit upset by all these happenings."

"Upset? Dear eyes, yes—I'll say I'm upset." The factor made a quick grasp for peace, for the sergeant looked dangerous. "All I meant was that I could understand a wife going to such an effort to join a husband, but not a sister."

"Any reason to believe Oliver O'Malley had a wife?" Seymour remained stern.

"None in the world. But a sister—To make a trip like that, she must have had some very pressing reason."

Again his eyes quivered the parson. "If there existed any other than sisterly affection," said Morrow evenly, "she did not express it to me." His manner was so final as to make further questioning discourteous.

Clumsily as Karmack had used his probe, he had but echoed a query that had been in Seymour's mind from his first realization of Moira's superlative comeliness. The sergeant had meant to ask about this when he and Morrow were alone, and he would have put his question without giving offense.

Why had one who deserved to be the honored toast of the Dominion rushed into the Arctic wilds, evidently unasked, certainly unexpected, at a time of year when it would be next to impossible to send her back?

Was there any connection between her coming and what had occurred so recently in the Eskimo hut? Had she brought a warning of some sort to this beloved brother and been lulled into thinking she might delay for a missionary escort and still be in time to serve and save him?

Those rapid-fire speculations, unvoiced, seemed to advise only negative answers. Yet why had she come?

Constable La Marr, who had been silent all evening to a point of moodiness, now snapped Seymour from his thoughts with a question of his own.

"And when are you going to turn me loose after that accursed Avic?" he demanded in a tone that was scarcely subordinate.

The missionary looked up at his violence, but had no censure for the speech of it. These men who give their lives to lighten the Arctic native's sorry burden grow accustomed to strong language.

"At daybreak you'll take the dogs, rush over to Prospect, and subpoena those three mining engineers wintering there to serve on corner's jury. Bring them back with you. Miss O'Malley need know of only one inquest." He glanced with thoughtful eyes toward the closed door of the inner room. "After that—"

One look at the young constable's face must have told any who saw it that Avic, the Eskimo, would need to hide like a weasel to escape that arm of the law.

CHAPTER V. Silver and Black

La Marr was away at dawn with a ventral facias for each of the three gold explorers, the only competent jurors within reach. As it was a matter of forty miles rough skidding to the prospectors' camp and return, the inquests could scarcely be held before the late afternoon. That the girl whose emotions they were conspiring to protect might be too busy for vagrant suspicions, Sergeant Seymour suggested to the Morrows that they open up Mission House while he was at liberty to help them.

"Don't want to seem inhospitable. Mrs. Morrow," he said in his slowest, most deferential manner, "and you know you'll be welcome here as long as you care to stay, but I'm sure you want to get into your own place as soon as possible. Never know when some Arctic hordes is going to cut loose and take me out on the trail. I'm off duty this morning—more than ready to help with the heavy work."

This brought an offer from Moira O'Malley that struck the hearts of those who knew.

"Our sergeant of the Dismounted is positively brilliant this morning," she said, confounding him utterly with twin flashes of Irish blue. "Why, all the time I attended school in Ottawa, I saw no one more considerate. You see, when Oliver gets back from this inconsiderate mush of his, I'll become quite useless as your handmaiden, Emma, with all the things a brother will be needing done for him."

Mrs. Morrow had not been advised of the true situation, but she had her own ideas as to the proper habitat in an outland's camp for a girl like Moira.

"Oh, you'll keep right on living at Mission House as long as you're here, my dear," she said. "The shack of a bachelor trader is no place for so dashing a belle."

"But I know Oliver's quarters, whatever they are, will need my sisterly attentions," she protested, spreading unconscious agony to the two men. "His room at home always was a sight. A place for everything but nothing in its place seemed to be that Mick's motto."

As the two went on ahead to the small dwelling that had been closed since the previous spring thaw, Seymour found himself asking again why she had come. Were sisters as devoted as that? As motherly. Never having had a sister, he was unable to answer.

The pair stripped weather boarding from doors and windows, aired the house thoroughly and carried in a supply of wood from the shed. They then closed it tight and built roasters in every available stove to remove the winter chill. The native hostler from the post already had shoveled paths through the snow.

So far as the two males could see, but little inside cleaning would be necessary. But the women, on coming to the house presently, revised that verdict and fell to with broom and mop.

The smoke from Mission House stove-pipes probably had been reported to Karmack, for he arrived presently, his interpreter drawing a toboggan loaded with provisions which were presented to the missionaries with compliments from the trading company. The gift was gracious, the supplies being of a sort not found in the somewhat meager store of staples provided by the societies. They were gratefully received.

Came then a second shock from Moira, again an innocent one, in the form of coupled questions.

"But Mr. Karmack, have you locked the store?" she asked first.

"Not much trade these wintry days and if customers come, they'll stick around like summer bull-fies." He accomplished the only laugh of the morning.

"But who is there to tell Oliver, when he comes back, that I've arrived and am waiting?"

Harry Karmack's freshly shaved, usually ruddy face went as white as the girl's natural pallor at this unexpected turn to his attempted whimsicality. He staggered back as if she had struck him a blow. Seymour, standing near, steadied him into a chair.

"That bad heart of yours again, old top?" the sergeant asked quietly.

No one ever had heard of anything being the matter with Karmack's heart, but the timely question served to cover his emotion. Mrs. Morrow noticed it, but did not wonder thereat. Evidently Moira had hit these sons of isolation hard, and there were in prospect interesting sessions, she thought, for Mission House living room that winter.

Seymour decided he had endured enough agony for one morning and so, on the plea of police routine, started for the post, but the thumbscrew of misadventure was to receive one more turn. From the door of Mission House the melodious voice of Moira carried to him.

Celebrated Unique Holiday

People Fittingly Observe "Name Day" Of Slavic Alphabet

The Bulgarian people celebrated a unique holiday on May 24 when throughout the country was observed the "name day" of the Slavic, or Cyrillic, alphabet and of its creators, the monks Cyril and his brother Methodius. It was in the ninth century and from the city of Salonica that these holy men promulgated their alphabet which was designed to propagate the Christian faith among Slavic peoples.

One of the notable observances took place at the Monastery of St. Ivan of Rila, in the mountains above Samokov, where the Bulgarian letters created by the apostles from Latin, Greek and Hebrew material, were preserved from extinction during the Turkish domination of five centuries.

The celebration of the day is also marked by the Orthodox Church to recall the introduction of Christianity among the Bulgarian people, and its spread to the other Slavic peoples by the followers of Sts. Cyril and Methodius.

RED HOT JULY DAYS HARD ON THE BABY

July—The month of oppressive heat; red hot days and sweltering nights; is extremely hard on little ones. Diarrhoea, dysentery, colic and cholera infantum carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer. The mother must be constantly on her guard to prevent these troubles or if they come on suddenly to fight them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during the hot summer as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels and stomach, and an occasional dose given to the well child will prevent summer complaint, or if the trouble does come on suddenly will banish it. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TO EXPECTANT MOTHERS

A Letter from Mrs. Smith Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Trenton, Ont.—"I am writing to you in regard to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would not be without it. I have taken it before each of my children was born and afterwards, and find it a great help. Before my first baby was born I had shortness of breath and ringing in my ears. I felt as if I would never pull through. One day a friend of my husband told him what the Vegetable Compound had done for his wife and advised him to take a bottle home for me. After the fourth bottle I was a different woman. I have four children now, and I always find the Vegetable Compound a great help as it seems to make confinement easier. I recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED H. SMITH, John St., Trenton, Ont.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for expectant mothers, and should be taken during the entire period. It has a general effect to strengthen and tone up the entire system, so that it may work in every respect effectually as nature intended. Thousands of women testify to this fact.

Expected That Hon. J. A. Robb Will Attend Inter-Allied Conference in London

It is expected that Hon. J. A. Robb will represent Canada at the inter-Allied conference to be held in London in August for the consideration of the Dawes report.

Premier King will be unable to go. The British Government has asked all the dominions to be represented and it is intended to accept the invitation.

Canada will be a signatory to any treaty which is concluded and parliament will be asked to ratify it. This will prevent a recurrence of the misunderstanding that arose out of the Lausanne treaty.

It reduces the inflammation and loosens the phlegm giving speedy relief to the little sufferer. It is equally reliable for sore throat and chest, earache, rheumatic pains, cuts, bruises and sprains. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is regarded by many thousands as an indispensable of the family medicine chest.

The lowest point for thousands of miles of the Andes is 10,000 feet above the sea.

Powerful Medicine.—The healing properties in six essential oils are concentrated in every bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, forming one of the most beneficial liniments ever offered to the use of man. WOMEN'S HANDICAPS

Headaches and Backaches Often Make Life Miserable

A woman's health handicaps her almost always. She has pains and disabilities which do not afflict men. Nature does not give her a fair chance. Her blood is more often thin and poor than a man's, and she often neglects the first beginnings of ill-health. Many women who seemed destined to a life of frequent suffering have been freed entirely from their suffering through the wonderful blood-making qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Many a woman toils all day with a pain in her back and side, a burning headache, and a sense of having no spine left.

What a pity women will not listen to their friends whom Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved from their misery. Whenever a woman suffers they will help her—in youth, middle-age and after-life. Mrs. John Mitchell, of Middleville, Ont., gives her experience for the benefit of other women sufferers. She says:—"Some years ago I was so badly run-down I could hardly walk around the house. I tried to do a few chores but was able to do very little. My boys and husband had to do the rest. If I started upstairs I had to go very slow or I would fall, and I was just played out when I got to the top of the stairs. My head ached terribly, and my heart would beat violently. In this deplorable condition I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I had finished six boxes I felt much better. Then I got a further supply, and by the time I had taken these I could walk anywhere without being exhausted, the headaches had disappeared and I am now perfectly well. Any woman who is run-down should not hesitate to begin Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once, as I am sure from my own experience they will build her up."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cts. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Establishment Of An Imperial Wireless Chain Also Urged in London

The congress of the Empire Chambers of Commerce in London unanimously urged the re-establishment of penny postage within the empire and also urged the Imperial and Dominion Governments to remove the difficulties confronting the establishment of an Imperial wireless chain.

The congress adopted a resolution urging increased energy in promoting emigration to the Dominions. "We can give a good living in Canada to all who are willing to work," said John Elliott, of Belleville, Ont., mover of the resolution.

This is why you see prettier complexions, today

Women have learned this simple way to keep youthful loveliness

The prettier complexions you see everywhere, today, are due to one thing:

Women have learned that it is unnecessary to sacrifice youthful loveliness to the passing years. This simple treatment has made it possible for millions of women to keep youth, charm. The secret is yours, too, if you will.

Just try this

Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your complexion lovely, radiant, youthful. But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.

Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night before retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse—and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.

Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

The simple, correct way

You cannot find a more effective beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils—famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive. Use it for the bath, too.

Take no chances. Palmolive is never sold unwrapped. Get it from any dealer. Then for one week try this easy method. You will have cause for delight even in that short time.

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

Golden Text: Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased. Mark 1:11.

Lesson: Mark 1:1-11. Devotional Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4. Reference Material: Matthew 3:1-17; Luke 3:1-22; John 1:19-34.

The Text Explained and Illumined

I. The Superscription to Mark's Gospel, verse 1. Here begins the good tidings concerning Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

II. The Herald of the Christ, verses 2-8. All we know about the youth and early manhood of John the Baptist is told in Lk. 1:80. He grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel. John the Baptist came as Isaiah had foretold. The first verse of the quotation that follows is from Malachi 3:1, the second, from Isaiah 40:3. "To ascribe it all to Isaiah was an inaccuracy, doubtless, but not through an error of memory, but through indifference to greater exactness, the quotation from Isaiah being what chiefly occupied the mind. It is something analogous to attraction in grammar. It is Mark's only citation on his own account" (Bruce). John came to prepare the way of the Lord by preaching in the wilderness and calling upon the people to repent and be baptized. "It is now generally admitted that proselyte baptism must have been the rule in Israel long before the time of John, and indeed from the very earliest days of Jewish propaganda John met those who came to his baptism as the 'proselyte of righteousness' was met when he sought to pass from the gates of Judaism into the sanctuary itself, with certain vigorous demands. The proselyte had to renounce his past, to renounce it so utterly that when he stepped out of the waters of baptism he was regarded, in the common language of the rabbis, as being 'born again,' or as being a 'little child just born.' And John, standing by the Jordan, met Israel with similar demands" (John C. Labert).

The title of Czar was first assumed by Ivan II. in 1577.

Moro Fishermen Find Extensive Pearl Beds

Have Monopoly of Certain Territory in China Sea

New and extensive pearl beds have been discovered by Moro fishermen recently in the China Sea off the north coast of the island of Palawan, one of the Philippine group, according to Dr. W. H. Wade, chief pathologist of the Cullion leper colony, who has just returned to Manila.

Moro fishermen have a monopoly of the new beds, and the waters around the coast of Palawan are dotted with the sails of their boats. Until recently the chief pearl beds of that region were located south of Palawan in the Sulu Sea and a majority of the fishermen were Japanese.

Radio Request For Antitoxin Received Quick Response From Liner

An interesting page from the log of the S.S. Empress of Scotland, contains details of the assistance rendered the S.S. Digby on the last westbound trip of the big Canadian Pacific liner. The entry reads as follows:—"At noon, when the ship was in latitude 53.04 north, longitude 31.34 west, a general radio was sent out by the S.S. Digby reading: 'All stations. Digby noon, position 53.42 north, 36.05 west, course 73 true, speed 13 knots, requests positions of vessels in vicinity having on board diphtheria antitoxin as this is urgently required. (Signed) West gart.'

"Calculations of these positions made ships 130 miles apart. After consulting with the ship's surgeon our course was adjusted to meet the S.S. Digby and at 4 p.m. she was sighted nearly ahead. At 4.37 p.m. her boat was alongside and in an hermetically sealed case the medicine was transferred at once. The vessels proceeded on their voyages after the exchange of greetings. From the reduction of speed on approaching the Digby lifeboat until the engines of the Empress of Scotland were on full speed ahead, was only a matter of ten minutes, namely reduced speed at 4.37 p.m., full speed ahead, 4.47 p.m.
